

ANOTHER SHADE OF GRAY

(written by Randy Kartchner & Kenneth Cope)

Great aspirations, and victims to take the bait
Sly fabrications - deception has lost its shame
And greed has taken over - no room for sympathy
The truth should make you sober
But you twist it as you please

The thrill is intoxicating
There's no thought of turning back
You're after someone till someone's caught in the trap

CHORUS:

*Oh, first a promise made
Oh, then a heart betrayed
Oh, till the light of day's
Just another shade of gray*

Where is the mercy - where is the heart that feels
Why crush another to fashion your own of steel
We all knew the same beginnings
Yes, you once were flesh and blood
So turn from this treason, or you'll end up the desperate one

REPEAT CHORUS

It's growin' darker now
Shadows that won't go away
